

Cookie Policy

Rayleigh Canine Agility, Last updated: November 2025

This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are, how we use them on our website, and how you can control them.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help websites work properly and provide useful information to website owners — for example, remembering your preferences or tracking how you use the site.

2. How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Make our website work correctly.
- Remember your preferences (like class bookings or contact form details).
- Improve performance and user experience.
- Analyse website traffic and visitor behaviour through Google Analytics.
- (If applicable) Track advertising performance through Facebook Pixel or other marketing tools.

We do not use cookies to collect personal information that can directly identify you.

3. Types of Cookies We Use

Type	Purpose	Example
Essential cookies	Required for the website to function properly (e.g. forms, booking systems).	Session cookies
Analytics cookies	Help us understand how visitors use our site so we can improve it.	Google Analytics
Functionality cookies	Remember your preferences for smoother browsing.	Language or region settings
Marketing cookies (if used)	Help measure and improve the performance of our marketing campaigns.	Facebook Pixel

4. Managing Cookies

When you first visit our site, you'll see a cookie consent banner allowing you to accept or manage cookie preferences. You can also control or delete cookies anytime by adjusting your browser settings.

Here's how to manage cookies in common browsers:

- Google Chrome
- Safari
- Microsoft Edge

Please note: disabling some cookies may affect how the website functions.

5. Updates to This Policy

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in technology or legal requirements. The updated version will always be available on this page.
